Ladies and Gentlemen:

As you know, we serve as legal counsel for the National PTA. You have informed us that, from time to time, school personnel and other government representatives seek to assert control over or direct the use of funds of local PTAs. The purpose of this letter is to describe the structure of local PTAs and to confirm that they represent independent nonprofit entities which are subject to direction only by their state PTA and the National PTA.

The PTA has a tri-level structure: National, state and local. The National PTA is a nonprofit corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. It has established affiliates in all states to establish and direct local PTAs. Both the National PTA and the state PTAs have established strict procedures for chartering PTAs at the local level. Local PTAs are also nonprofit entities exempt from federal income tax.

Local PTAs are not supporting organizations, clubs or booster groups for any schools. They are separate legal entities which further the PTA mission of providing parents and families with a powerful voice to speak on behalf of children. Local PTAs work in harmony with school personnel, but they are not part of any school and are not subject to direction or control in any manner by school personnel.

We trust this explanation clarifies the status of local PTAs and will prevent misunderstanding in the future.

Sincerely,

Paula Cozzi Goedert
